Context

'English Language VIII' is a compulsory course within the UIB's BA programme in English Studies. As it stands, it is offered in the second semester of the degree's fourth year, as a follow-up to seven other courses ('English Language I-VII') which should have helped the student begin to reach a proficency level (C2) in English. In the light of this, the present course aims at consolidating the student's skills in English (reading, writing, speaking and listening) at proficiency or mastery level (C2). According to the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages, this level should enable to learner to:

- -understand with ease virtually everything heard or read.
- -summarise information from different spoken and written sources, reconstructing arguments and accounts in a coherent presentation.
- -express him/herself spontaneously, very fluently and precisely, differentiating finer shades of meaning even in the most complex situations.
- 'English Language VIII' is part of the degree's linguistic competence module, which has been specifically designed so as to foster the student's accuracy yet also overall fluency in the English language, among other aims. The course will follow a mostly practical approach to language issues, which does not however preclude the inclusion of several theoretical sessions aiming at developing explicit knowledge concerning particularly complex language issues (grammar points, vocabulary, pronunciation or idiomatic language).

The course has been designed so as to help students practise those language aspects which are generally found most difficult and demanding (specific writing and lexis, idiomaticity, pronunciation), which will thus be practised in class while students are also expected to work autonomously, especially on grammar-related issues and other areas in which a highly proficient level is more easily achieved (e.g. listening skills), using materials which will be freely provided through Campus Extens.

Requirements

Recommended

Although this course has no official requirements, students are advised to have passed the courses 'English Language I' to 'English Language VII', which should guarantee a sound knowledge of English at Proficiency level (C2), as described by the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages. Those students who have not passed one of the previous English Language courses or feels at a disadvantage with the course level should use the Complementary Bibliography and the services of the English Lab (timetables and location will be confirmed during the course). For more information on the "English Lab" check this link http://diari.uib.cat/arxiu/Coneixeu-lEnglish- Lab.cid376924, or the Lab's social media site https://www.facebook.com/englishlabUIB/info?tab=page info

Skills

This course will help the student with the following:

Specific

- * 1. To communicate in English in both oral and written forms with the fluency, accuracy and complexity fitting each context and situation (skill No. 13, English Studies curriculum)..
- * 2. To master the different levels of analysis and usage of the English linguistic system so as to understand the relationship between (1) form and meaning; and (2) meaning and context (skill No. 14, English Studies curriculum)..
- * 3. To develop skills in the fields of language and style consulting (skill No. 21, English studies curriculum)...

Generic

- * 1. To develop autonomous and team work (skill No. 1, English Studies curriculum)...
- * 2. To obtain and manage information, fostering lifelong learning (skill No. 2, English Studies curriculum)...
- * 3. To develop a capacity for self-criticism, fostering the student's concern for quality and lifelong learning (skill No. 12, English Studies curriculum)..

Basic

* You may consult the basic competencies students will have to achieve by the end of the degree at the following address: http://www.uib.eu/study/grau/Basic-Competences-In-Bachelors-Degree-Studies/

Academic year 2017-18

Subject 21826 - English Language VIII

Group 1, 2S

Syllabus J Language English

Emphasis will be placed on the understanding of different spellings of English, especially on its BrE and AmE varieties.

WRITING

Topics: Review (play, film, restaurant, event, etc.), short story (creative writing), discursive essay, and academic review (abstract, in coordination with the TFG parameters and the contents seen in CITALA, 21800).

The courses English Language VII and English VIII will tackle writing skills at proficiency level. The different activities will help students consolidate previously acquired skills in the field, placing special emphasis on such advanced issues as:

Collocations

Tone

Paragraphing

Punctuation: Use Leech, Geoffrey and Svartvik, Jan 1994: A Communicative Grammar of English. Harlow: Longman and follow Chicago punctuation style (Author, Date).

Register

Spelling changes

Style

Both creative and academic writing will be practised.

Lastly, emphasis will also be placed on spelling issues and word choice, including the main differences between standard British English and General American English.

SPEAKING

Topics. Speaking activities will cover the same topics described above for reading. Additionally, both English Language VII and VIII will help students perfect their oral skills within an academic context.

Phonological aspects of the spoken production: register, appropriateness, distinctive phonological features (voicing, devoicing, rounding, nasality, plosion), word stress, sentence stress and rhythm, introduction to intonation patterns (varied intonation patterns, different sentence stress to convey finer shades of meaning), manner and place of articulation (Received Pronunciation vs. American English), and features of linking (phonetic reduction, vowel reduction, strong and weak forms, assimilation, andelision) (in coordination with 21811 "Fundamentals of English Phonology"). Other relevant issues connected to Received Pronunciation.

Grammar of Spoken English: Indirect questions, questions tags (advanced level), echo questions, short responses, emphatic forms of speech, stock sentences, ellipsis, inserts, command of lexical repertoire, and tags.

Speaking techniques at proficiency level: word substitution, backtracking and reformulating, well-structured speech, organisational patterns, connectors and cohesive devices, discussion techniques, turntaking and cooperating strategies, relating own contribution to other's, presentation techniques, highlighting significant points, integrating subthemes, and rounding off at a profient level.

Lastly, emphasis will also be placed on pronunciation issues, including the main differences between standard British (RP) and General American English.

LISTENING

Topics.

Listening activities will cover the same topics described above for reading.

Teaching methodology

Mobile phones and other electronic devices are NOT allowed in the classroom. Laptop computers are acceptable ONLY if used for purposes related to classroom activity. No electronic device whatsoever (including computers) is allowed in the classroom during exams/practical sessions, unless otherwise specified by the lecturer (e.g., if the practical session entails use of the Internet for pedagogical purposes).

All (UIB and exchange) students will follow a continuous assessment. Students are expected to attend both theoretical and practice sessions regularly, participate actively and hand in work when required, which will be duly corrected and commented on by the lecturer. Students officially recognised by the UIB as part-time students will follow the same assessment criteria established in Pathway A. The only difference between part-time and full-time students is that the former are not expected to regularly attend or actively participate in sessions. The classes will be organised as follows:

In-class work activities

Modality	Name	Typ. Grp.	Description	Hours
Theory classes		Large group (G)	28 hours will be devoted to the study of the most complex points included in the syllabus. These will be mostly (but not necessarily restricted to) grammar issues and attention will also be paid to writing and reading skills, as well as vocabulary building. It should be noted, however, that a holistic approach to language teaching and learning will be followed in the course. This means that, independently of the session type and the topic under discussion, an effort will be made to practise different skills at a time. Autonomous work may be required before attending each session and this will be duly notified via Campus Extens.	28
Seminars and workshops		Medium group (M) 18.5 hours will be devoted to seminars and workshops. Independent work will be required before attending the former, and this will be duly notified via Campus Extens. These sessions are specifically designed to complement theory classes and help the student practise the different skills, with a special focus on writing and speaking. Listening activities will also be offered, although the student is expected to do substantial autonomous work in this field. Specific materials will be duly provided with this aim. A field trip might be part of these formative sessions and workshops. Hence, the attendance to it will be compulsory.	18.5
Practical classes		Large group (G)	7 hours will be spent in entirely practical sessions, especially devoted to the practice and assessment of speaking skills. The latter may be practised through role play activities, discussions and debates, and possibly presentations.	7 be conducted and the hand-in dates for the assignments. In addition, the lecturer shall inform students as to whether the subject work plan will be carried out through the schedule or through another way included in the Campus Extens platform.

Distance education work activities

Modality	Name	Description	Hours
Group or individual self-study		The student will carry out a substantial amount of work on his/her own (90 hours). The estimated workload is the following:
		-Individual study and reading: 2.1 ECTS (52 hours)
		-Completion of pre-assigned tasks: 0.6 ECTS (15 hours)
		- Campus Extens participation: 0,2 ECTS (5 hours)
		-Online tutorials (email): 0,1 ECTS (3 hours)
		-Group self-study Seminar and presentation
	Preparation. The preparation of seminars and presentations (if applicable) may be carried out in small groups. The estimated workload for each of the students involved will be 0.6 ECTS (15 hours)

Specific risks and protective measures

The learning activities of this course do not entail specific health or safety risks for the students and therefore no special protective measures are needed.

Student learning assessment

All students are expected to attend both theoretical and practice sessions regularly, participate actively and hand in work when required, which will be duly corrected and commented on by the lecturer. Besides, they will also be given marks for the completion of tasks in class.

NB: Work will always be submitted in class on the scheduled day. Under no circumstances will the student rely on fellow classmates for the submission of original work. Students may safely expect to submit or complete the following assignments during the course. It is the student's duty to regularly check out the course's Campus Extens site to know when assignments or tasks are due.

Midterm assessments will be held in April-May. Information about dates and slots will be shown on Campus Extens and the Chronogram at the beginning of the semester. They will consist of two blocks:

-Block 1: Use of English (10% of the final mark), Reading (10% of the final mark), Listening (10% of the final mark) and Writing (10% of the final mark)

-Block 2 (to be held on a separate date. Information about dates and slots will be shown on Campus Extens): Speaking (5% of the final mark. NOT retrievable).

Students will take the final exam in June. In order to pass the course the student must have at least obtained a PASS grade (5 or higher) in each area (reading, writing, listening, use of English and speaking). Consequently, should one or more parts not be successfully passed by the student, the rest of their grades will not be taken

Academic year 2017-18

Subject 21826 - English Language VIII

Group 1, 2S

Syllabus J Language English

into account, even if the average score is a PASS (5 or higher). In this case, the student will have a 4.5 in their record (UIBdigital).

The Final assessment will consist of five parts of equal value:

-Block 1: Use of English (10% of the final mark), Reading (10% of the final mark), Listening (10% of the final mark) and Writing (10% of the final mark).

-Block 2: (to be held on a separate date. Information about dates and slots will be shown on Campus Extens): Speaking (15% of the final mark).

NB. All parts can be re-taken from 26 to 30 of June, should any of them be failed in early June: estudis.uib.cat/ Calendaris/Facultats-i-escoles/ffil/. Note should be taken, however, that in order to pass the course the student must also have obtained a PASS grade in all of the other skills assessed. Consequently, when the student numerically obtains at least a 5 out of 10 as a global grade, but one or more parts are not successfully passed, the student's grade will be 4.5 (Section 26.7 Academic Regulation).

IMPORTANT: Students should note that:

- Aserious lexical, grammatical and phonetic mistakewill automatically result in a FAIL grade.
- Plagiarism will always be penalised, in accordance with the UIB's current academic regulations, reproduced below:

Article 33. Frau

- 1. Amb independència del procediment disciplinari que es pugui seguir contra l'estudiant infractor, la realització demostradorament fraudulenta d'algun dels elements d'avaluació inclosos en guies docents de les assignatures comportarà, a criteri del professor, una menys valoració en la seva qualificació que pot suposar la qualificació de «suspens 0» a l'avaluació anual de l'assignatura.
- 2. En particular, es considera un frau:
- a) En els exàmens o proves escrites, l'ús de qualsevol mitjà encaminat a facilitar les respostes.
- b) En els treballs i pràctiques individuals o de grup, la inclusió de fragments d'obres alienes presentats de tal manera que es facin passar com a propis (plagi).
- -If a student fails to show up on the day and at the time established by the lecturer for the exams or midterm assignments, the grade for that exam or assignment will be 0 (zero), in case the student has presented more than 30% of the total assigned evaluation course tasks. Only if the student has presented 30% or less than 30% of the total assigned evaluation course tasks, will the grade be NP.
- -Under no circumstances will the dates and times of the official exams be altered with the only exception of those cases contemplated by the University of the Balearic Islands' Reglament Acadèmic (Section 30).
